

CREATIVE SUPPLY

We are the 'go to' company for many Primary schools to fulfil a range of staffing needs; from planned teacher absences, to ad hoc supply cover needed at short notice, to longer term roles. Whatever the reason, teachers know that when our Bigfooters enter the classroom to cover their lessons, something magical starts to happen!

You can rest assured that when you have a Bigfoot Educator in your school, you have someone who:

- Is able to guide students through their normal school day; from registration and assemblies, to break and lunch times.
- Is reliable and committed to delivering your learning objectives with originality and flair, using the arts to bring the topic to life in the classroom
- Can plan a whole lesson that meets set learning objectives and encompasses written, oral and kinaesthetic exercises to engage students and enrich their learning.
- Is flexible and able to think on their feet so that, whatever your student's needs, they can adapt to the age, ability, size and location of any class within your school.
- Has excellent behaviour and classroom management skills
- Works well as part of a school teaching team
- Has a full enhanced DBS
- Is trained in NSPCC Level 2 Safeguarding by our in-house DSL.
- Has attended Bigfoot's rigorous selection and training programme and continues to take part in various CPD opportunities.

Format

We can work with up to 5 class groups in a day from any key stage.

Topics

We can deliver your teacher's learning objectives using the creative arts to embellish the work, or we can plan our own sessions based on Bigfoot's vast bank of curriculum based resources.

Costs
